

constancelamarque.com

I love Paris. I go back as often as I can. It's no surprise that the City of Light is fertile ground for my artistic development. I've tapped into my love for this mythic destination and put my fondest memories down on paper.

Close-ups of Parisian walls is my way of capturing the backdrop of my frequent walks in the French capital, in subtle, fleeting images. A brief description of my budding project.

Whispers. Each picture corresponds to an innocent, mysterious, discreet or plaintive whisper, a quiver of the imagination, captured under the open sky and interpreted as the fancy took me.

Enjoy strolling through Paris !